AL Johnson	0	0	3	0	3	4	2	12	9	5	8

Justin Vitti came in to get the last two outs, stranding the tying runner at second base, to record the save in a game that almost slipped away from the Hilltoppers. Summit took a 9-0 lead by scoring seven runs in the top of the third inning, then held on to win 13-12. Starter Andrew Oristanio was the winning pitcher, striking out five in 4 1/3 innings of work. The offense was led by Seth Ryan, who was 3 for 3 with a double, three RBIs, 2 runs scored and a stolen base. Kevin Fries was 2 for 3, driving in three runs and stealing 2 bases. Scott Burian was 2 for 4, scoring three runs, driving in one and stealing a base. In total, Summit stole 11 bases, but also missed opportunities in virtually every inning to strand 13 runners. Thanks to Vitti's second save of the season, Summit came home a winner despite AL Johnson scoring nine runs in the final three innings.
